PRESS RELEASE

CME Enterprise Named to Manage All Industry-Supported Symposia at 2010 APA Annual Meeting

Carmel, IN – January 26, 2009 – The American Psychiatric Association (APA) has chosen CME Enterprise as the sole medical education partner to prepare and manage all industry-supported symposia (ISS) programming at its annual meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana, from May 22-26, 2010.

CME Enterprise will manage all elements of industry-supported symposia programming for this prestigious educational meeting in close partnership with the APA.

“It is a tremendous honor to be selected as the sole industry-supported symposia planning organization for this year’s APA annual meeting,” said Bruce J. Bellande, PhD, FACME, CCMEP, President of CME Enterprise, and former Executive Director of the Alliance for CME. “We are proud to have the opportunity to showcase our ability to flawlessly plan and execute symposia programming and to provide attendees with a unique, enriching, and educational experience.”

CME Enterprise is an award-winning, ACCME-accredited medical education company with extensive resources dedicated to planning, designing, executing, and evaluating continuing medical education. The CME Enterprise mission is to create learner-centered interventions anchored in the art and science of medicine that advance clinical competence, resulting in optimal patient care.
